Mr. Oxeme Peltier and Mr. Leo Legendre have gone to spend sometime at Marlin, Texas.

Mr. Raoul Legendre returned last Friday from New Orleans, where he has completed a business course at the Spencer Business College.

We are pleased to note that Mr. Albert Daunis has recovered sufficiently to be able to go about again.

Mr. P. Frank Kurts, one of our well-known painters and paper hangers, returned last Friday from a trip to Mobile, Ala.

Mr. Desire Lagrege, the proprietor of one of our dairies is giving his customers extra good measure these days. This is because he is overflowing with happiness, another fine boy having been born unto him a few days ago.

Dr. J. L. Ragan, one of our leading dentists, will soon be able to relate some interesting things about his son, who was born last Tuesday. This being Dr. and Mrs. Ragan's first child (a boy) their joy can easily be imagined.

After an absence of three weeks, Miss Alice Auslet, one of our successful milliners, returned to Thibodaux last Sunday. She spent the time while away at Biloxi, Ocean Springs, Gulfport and in New Orleans.

Next Saturday and Sunday are the days fixed for the fair of Thibodaux Fire Co. No. 1, which was postponed from last Saturday and Sunday.

Dr. H. C. Danseresau, of Labadieville, was here Monday. The young physician had intended accompanying his father to Canada, but having patients who required his attention it was impossible for him to make the trip.

In writing to Thibodaux a correspondent tells us that "the three young gentlemen of Thibodaux, Messrs Wallace Esteven, Sidney Lusignan and Robert Bergeron, who came to Texas to attend the Morse School of Telegraphy, at Texarkana, Texas, are getting along fine in their studies and they are well pleased. They have a fine teacher, who is Prof. Suttlars".

CHARTER OF THE ROUSSEAU CO. LTD.

United States of America,
State of Louisiana,
Parish of Lafourche.

Be it known that on this the 6th day of the month of July, in the year one thousand nine hundred and six,

Before me, Thomas A. Bedsent, a notary public in and for the parish of Lafourche, State of Louisiana, duly commissioned and qualified in the presence of the witnesses hereinafter named and undersigned,

Personally came and appeared L. C. Rousseau; J. B. Theophile Braud; L. Ulysses Boudreaux; A. Louis Boudreaux; L. Armand Leder; C. Pierre S. Leder; T. Prosper Thibodaux; F. Wallace Leder; L. Alex Alex Pertuis; L. C. all residents of the parish of Lafourche, who severally declared, that desiring themselves of the provisions of the laws of the state of Louisiana relative to the organization of corporations, they have contracted and agree & and do by these presents contract and agree, and bind and obligate themselves, their successors and assigns, to the terms and stipulations, following, to wit:

ARTICLE I. The name and title of the corporation shall be "The Rousseau Co. Ltd.," and its domicile shall be the parish of Lafourche, and its term of existence until otherwise dissolved by a vote of the majority of its Board of Directors shall be at 1 a short building belonging to Mrs. C. O. Rousseau, on the left commercial back of Bayou Lafourche, at about seven miles below the town of Thibodaux.

It shall exist and have succession for a period of ninety nine years from this date.

It shall commence business on the first of July, 1906, (this present year.)

It may have, hold, purchase, sell, convey, lease and pledge or mortgage the property, real and personal, of the said corporation same; make and use a corporate seal with such inscription or device as may be selected by the board of Directors.

It shall also elect such officers, managers or agents as the Board of Directors may require, and adopt such by-laws as shall be necessary for the regulation of its affairs, and to add to, have, form shall spe-Penalty of the corporation, and to alter, change or repeal such by-laws, and to do all powers and enjoy all the powers conferred by law on corporations of a like nature.

The president of this company, or, in the event of his death, illness, absence or inability to act from any cause, the Vice-president thereof, or, in the event of the Vice-president's inability to act from any cause, the Secretary of the Board, shall be designated as the person upon whom all citations or other legal process shall be served.

ARTICLE II. The objects and purposes for which this corporation is organized and for which the business to be carried on and transacted by it, are to do a general mercantile business in wood.

ARTICLE III. The capital stock of the corporation is hereby declared to be Ten thousand dollars, divided into one hundred shares of one hundred dollars each, payable to the Board of Directors may order.

All transfers of stock shall be made on the books of the corporation, by the stockholder, or by his duly authorized agent and attorney in fact.

It shall be lawful for anyone holding 25 or more of any share or shares of the capital stock of the corporation without first offering the same to the corporation and giving it the preference to purchase same at its fair value, and if this is not done the stockholder desiring to transfer his stock, shall be allowed to the stockholders, who shall have ten days within which to purchase all or part of the same at the fair value, and only upon the refusal of the said corporation or of the stockholders to purchase same, will the transfer of such shares be authorized to be made upon the books of the corporation.

ARTICLE IV. The affairs of the corporation shall be managed by a Board of Directors, to be elected annually on the first Monday in July, every year. A failure to meet this election shall not cause a forfeiture of this charter, but a second election shall be ordered ten days notice shall be given, and if, from any cause, there shall be no quorum, from second election, the old Board shall hold over.

The Board of Directors shall have power to fill all vacancies occurring in their number. The directors shall elect from their number—Pr esident, a Vice-President and a Secretary, who shall be ex officio Treasurer.

The said Board of Directors shall hold office until their successors are elected.

At all elections, each share of stock shall be entitled to one vote to be cast in person or by proxy and all elections shall be by ballot.

On the first Monday of July, 1907, the Board of Directors shall consist of C. Oxeme Rousseau, President; P. W. Davis Secretary-Treasurer; Alexander Pertuis, Jr., and Pierre Leder.

ARTICLE V. The Board of directors shall have power, only to enter into the business of the corporation; to make general rules for its conduct; to fix the salaries of the officers and employees; to employ and discharge any person necessary for the conduct of the business.

It shall have power by a majority vote to mortgage or pledge, or the same may be, the property or effects of the corporation, and to borrow money, and to do all things within a quorum for the transaction of business, but no business other than the regular administrative affairs of this corporation shall be transacted at other than the regular meetings of the corporation. Any stockholder shall have the right to be present at every meeting of the Board and to participate therein, but stockholders, not members of the Board, have the right to vote at such meeting.

No person shall be qualified to be a Director of this corporation unless he owns at least one share of the capital stock of this corporation.

ARTICLE VI. The President shall have charge of the books of the corporation in the office of the corporation; he shall preside at all meetings of the board and shall act directly with the executive officers of the corporation. He shall be the manager of the finances and of the property of the corporation. He is vested with the power granted to the Board of Directors by the Board of Directors, and shall be the executive officer of the corporation; he shall subscribe notes to representation of the loan as contracted; he endorses notes for discount; and shall have full power to pledge any personal property of the corporation for the uses and purposes of the corporation.

ARTICLE VII. The Vice-president shall exercise the functions of the President in case of the latter's inability to act, or of his absence.

ARTICLE VIII. The Secretary shall have charge of the books of the corporation in which shall be kept accounts of the receipts and expenditures of the business. These books and records of the corporation shall be open to the inspection of any stockholder of the Board of Directors and of any stockholders who may so desire.

At the end of the year, after paying all the debts of the corporation, sufficient sum shall be set aside to carry on the business of the corporation the following year, the surplus, if any, shall be divided among the stockholders in proportion to their stock.

The Secretary who shall be ex-officio Treasurer shall have charge of the funds of the corporation, which shall be paid only on check of the President countersigned by the Secretary.

ARTICLE IX. No stockholder shall be liable for the debts of the corporation to the amount of his subscription, and he shall be subject to no further call, and shall in no way be liable for the debts of the corporation. All creditors must look to the corporate property for their demands, or shall any more informality of organization have the effect of rendering the charter void or of exposing any stockholder to any liability beyond the amount of his subscription.

ARTICLE X. At all meetings of the stockholders a majority shall constitute a quorum.

ARTICLE XI. This corporation shall not be dissolved nor this charter altered or amended except by the assent of three-fourths of the stockholders.

ARTICLE XII. Whenever this corporation is dissolved, either by limitation or from any other cause, its affairs shall be liquidated by three commissioners to be appointed from among the stockholders at a meeting called for the same, mentioned after ten days notice to the stockholders of the time and place of meeting, which shall be in one of the newspapers published in the parish of Lafourche. The said liquidating commissioners shall remain in office until their functions are completely discharged. Any vacancy in their number shall be filled at a meeting of the stockholders called for that purpose.

Done done and passed, thirty month and year first above written, in the presence of Messrs Wilfred E. Bergeron and Leopold P. Portelle, of the parish of Lafourche, in good and competent witnesses, who signed with the p rties and me, notary, after due reading of the Whole. Armand L. Det not knowing how to sign made his ordinary mark.

(original signed) C. O. Rousseau, Thos. A. Bedsent, Notary Public.

Rousseau, Armand Leder, Jos. Mack, Pierre S. Leder, Prosper Thibodaux, F. Wallace Leder, Alexandre Pertuis, Jr., Wilfred E. Bergeron, Leopold P. Portelle.
