

This day, personally came and appeared in open Court Antoine Fihler, a native of Winttemberg, and having proved to the satisfaction of the Court that he arrived in the United States in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and forty being then a minor, under eighteen years of age. And it also being proven to the satisfaction of the Court on the oaths of Robert Peaux and Charles Schoensche, Citizens of the United States that the said Antoine Fihler has resided within the limits and under the jurisdiction of the United States for upwards of five immediately preceding the date of this application, and within the limits of the State of Louisiana where this Court is now holden, for more than one year, and that he has behaved as a man of good moral character, attached to the principles of the United States, and well disposed to the good order and happiness of the same: and that it was bona fide his intention three years previous to the present period to become a Citizen of the United States and the said Antoine Fihler having taken the oath required by the first section of an act of Congress entitled to establish a uniform rule of naturalization and to repeal the acts heretofore passed on that subject, and by the first section of an act of Congress entitled "An Act in further addition to an act to establish a uniform rule of naturalization, and to repeal the acts heretofore passed on that subject."

It is therefore ordered by the Court that the same be entered on record, and that the said Antoine Fihler be admitted a Citizen of the United States.
