THE ADVISORY BOARD.

Important Proceedings.

Clerks of Registration and Commissioners of Election.

At a meeting of the Advisory Board yesterday, after the receipt and consideration of various complaints from the wards and parishes, it was moved by Mr. Burke:

Resolved, That in order to secure a representation of both political parties in the various registration offices, the board do recommend to Gov. Kellogg the appointment of the clerk in each registration office having to make the entries in the registration books, from the Conservative party in all cases where the supervisors or assistant supervisors are from the Republican party, and vice versa. Lost.

By Mr. Burke:

Whereas, the members of the Advisory Board representing the conservative citizens of the parish of Orleans are laboring under the apprehension that a large number of persons have been and are being improperly registered in said parish; and whereas, it is claimed by said conservative members of this board that a representation in the registration offices of this parish is absolutely essential in the interests of a fair registration and election; be it

Resolved, That this board do advise Gov. Kellogg to appoint a Conservative in each ward of the parish of Orleans as clerk, whose duty it shall be to make the entries of registration in the registration books of said wards.

In Trouble.

Insult, abuse and breach of the peace. He laid himself open to these three charges. Poor Henry Stern; he wishes he had not done so now. He will tell Judge McArthur of his repentance to-day. Meanwhile he passed a quiet night on the soft side of a plank couch at the First Precinct Police Station.

[From Yesterday's Evening Edition.]

Found Open.

At about half-past 4 o'clock this morning, Officer Clancy found open the premises No. 46 Baronne street, now famous as the temple of light comedy and consecrated to the worship of Thespis, under the name of the Gaiety Theatre. The doors were then secured, and nothing was found missing.

There is a class of men who, unlike the renowned Micawber, do not "wait for something to turn up," but undertake to turn up things themselves.
