

FIFTY-FIFTH ANNIVERSARY.

Quite a unique celebration took place Saturday at the residence of Judge and Mrs. Sam Levy, 335 Slidell avenue, where the celebration of the old Brooklyn Steam Fire Co. No. 2 took place. This was the fifty-fifth anniversary and one of the interesting facts about the organization and the celebration was that the same officers who were present and were officers at the last meeting, held in 1889, were present at the anniversary, and still hold their same positions, as follows: L. J. Peterson, president; M. Vinet, vice-president; Geo. Lecourt, secretary; H. L. Lecourt, treasurer; Samuel Levy, foreman; John B. Hildebrand, first assistant; Chas. Adams, second assistant.

Besides the above mentioned, the following were also present: Ed. Cunningham, John Coyle, Wm. Whittenberg, Geo. Nelson, W. A. Hintz, John T. McGarry, Wm. Burke, Ed. Burgau, Chas. Vinet, L. C. Murphy, Fred Diket, Chas. Buhler, Anthony Faller, J. H. Bertrand, A. C. Brill, Wm. Heath. Following a sumptuous repast toasts were drunk and speeches made, and many reminiscences resulting from the memories of those who spoke. Addresses were made by Sam Levy, L. J. Peterson, Ed. Cunningham, L. C. Murphy and others. Adjournment was had with the understanding that the next meeting was to be held at the same place, one year hence.
