

ore the New York Board to establish a large public beach, the rather ought out that the sea is large part of the land a resort is situated. A owned by the city, occu-1874. Since that time way forty acres. It was be public bathing pavilion during the winter months away a portion of the
The proposed building water front. The city ing to build a series of water in the hope of groads of the ocean.
fessless in our own time, if that is the proper name ed in various unexpected it surely be the last word that which is now being allan Lake, Nemi, where being conducted with the
the surface two vessels der water for something are two imperial Roman seabouts is well known, ive every hope of securing commenced so long ago temporarily suspended, and d by the desire of King vessels is said to measure

Ellysian Fields Avenue.

By order of

JOE JURINICH, President
B. SENKO, Recording Secretary.

ABRAMS—On Sunday, July 17, 1904, at 8:30 o'clock p.m., ALFRED ABRAMS, native of New Orleans, La.

BENSEL—On Sunday, July 17, 1904, at 7:25 o'clock p.m., HENRY BENSEL, aged 60 years, beloved husband of Mary Donnanfelser.

BRADY—On Sunday, July 17, 1904, at 2 o'clock a.m., DANIEL BRADY, beloved husband of Julia Kain, aged 42 years, a native of England, and a resident of this city thirty-seven years.

BLINSEL—On Sunday, July 17, 1904, at 7:25 o'clock p.m., HENRY BENSEL, aged 60 years, beloved husband of Mary Donnan-
felser.

CHURCHILL—On Saturday, July 15, 1896, at 5 o'clock a.m., MARTHA THORN, widow of the late Charles H. Churchill, a native of New York, and for many years a resident of this city.

COTERON—On Saturday, July 16, 1904, at 8:40 o'clock p.m., CATHERINE AMEN, widow of Manuel Coteron, aged 34 years, a native of New Orleans.

DAVIS—On Sunday, July 17, 1904, at 7:15 o'clock a.m., THREASER BECKER, wife of C. J. Davis, aged 32 years, a native of Kenner, La.

DESPOSITO—On Monday, July 18, 1904, at 5:40 o'clock p.m., ANTONIO DESPOSITO, beloved husband of Mary Ryan, aged 57 years and 7 months, a native of Italy, a resident of this city forty-three years.

DERIGNY—On Wednesday, July 26, 1904, at 4:15 o'clock p.m., ALBERT DERIGNY, aged 55 years, a native of France, and a resident of this city for the past forty-eight years.