

LOUISE BRYANT VEZIEN.

On Saturday evening at 9:20 o'clock Miss Louise Bryant Vezien died after an illness of but one week. Deceased, who was the daughter of Heipolyte Vezien and Wilhelmina Buhler, was a native of our town and was fourteen years old. Her death was indeed a great shock to her friends, of whom she had many. Just budding into young womanhood, it was a great blow to her devoted parents, that she should be taken away just when life was at its sweetest and best. Besides her parents, she is survived by three brothers, George Vezien of Houston, Tex.; Ernest and Heipolyte Vezien, and by seven sisters, Mrs. Jos. Hildebrand, Mrs. Louis Fournagne of San Francisco, Cal., and Misses Wilhelmina, Blanche, Mildred, Maud and Vera Vezien.

The funeral took place Monday evening at 3:30 o'clock from her parents' residence, 311 Morgan street. Father Cassagne officiated at the funeral and delivered a most touching address. Interment was in McDonoghville cemetery. The following young friends of the deceased acted as pallbearers: Misses Irma Schroder, Hattie Smith, Nettie Horn, Irva Daniels, Camille Spahr and Thelma Johnson; Masters Ed White, Louis Bergeron, Claude Bergeron, Ed Spahr, S. Talbot and J. Euper.
