PERSONAL MENTION.

Mr and Mrs. Frank Barker were guests last Sunday at the home of Mr. Cons. J. Barker.

Aurelien Boutezie (one of the COMET devils) and Ed. Engerran spent last Sunday in Houma.

Mr. O. J. Toups, the successful owner of the market near the S. P. depot, also one of our aldermen, was a visitor to Texas last Monday.

Rev. Francis Badeaux, of Plaquemine, came to Thibodaux Tuesday and left yesterday for New Orleans.

Misses Cecile and Edna Caillouet left last Monday on a visit to their brothers at Jefferson College, St. James parish.

Miss Cecile Bernard returned last Sunday from Lafourche Crossing, where she had spent sometime visiting friends.

Mr. T. J. Simmons spent last Sunday in Thibodaux, a guest at the home of his sister, Mrs M. E. Long.

Miss Eveline Cadiere, from Houma, was a guest last week at the home of Mr. Joachim Badeaux, in Thibodaux.

Miss Clara Bergeron of Thibodaux, the accomplished sister of S. L. Bergeron, visited friends in Lockport this week.—Lockport Eagle.

Those collar and cuff boxes at the Thibodeaux Drug Store are very suitable for a Christmas present.

Miss Nisset Bienvenu, a very pretty young lady from Hahnville, St. Charles parish, is a guest at the home of Mr. Scott Williams, on Acadia plantation.

Mr. Denis Clement is treating his customers to a free sample of French Market Java Blend roasted coffee. Try the sample and you will doubtless continue using the coffee.

Disease and danger lurk in the vital organs. The blood becomes vitiated and the general health is undermined whenever the stomach and liver fail to perform their functions as nature intended. HERBINE will tone up the stomach, regulate the liver, where other preparations only relieve. Price, 50 cents. At Thibodeaux Drug Store.

Mr. Tom Bourgeois, one of the employees of the Jeffries [illegible] foundry, hurt one of his fingers so badly during the latter part of last week, as to make him lay off for several days.

It's a girl—a fine one. We refer to the new arrival at the elegant home of Mr. E. P. Lefort. She's not ready to receive company yet, because she was born only on Monday of last week. We congratulate the parents.

The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. V. E. Sposito, which was born last Monday morning, died the same day. The interment took place Monday evening in St. Joseph's Catholic cemetery. Our sympathy is extended to the bereaved parents.

Send 10cts. in stamps to S. F. B. Morse, P. T. M. Southern Pacific-Sunset Route Houston, Texas, for a copy of the celebrated Southern Pacific Rice Cook Book containing 200 Tested Recipes for preparing Rice.

Mr. Rosamond Lorio again advertises his bath tubs and furniture for sale, as he, with his parents, will soon become a resident of New Orleans. We understand that Mr. Lorio intends to marry as soon as he is permanently located in the City.

Mr. Alex Jeffries and Miss Birdie Duncan, both of our town, were married on last Tuesday in Baton Rouge.

The above appeared in last Sunday's Times-Democrat. The bride formerly lived in Thibodaux, where her former friends will be happy to hear of her wedding.

Praise the bridge that carries you over either a flood or cough. BALLARD'S HOREHOUND SYRUP has brought so many over throat and lung troubles, such as coughs, colds, bronchitis, etc., that its praises are sung everywhere. Price, 25 and 50 cents. At Thibodeaux Drug Store.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Dr. and Mrs. P. J. Dansereau, of Labadieville, spent last Sunday in Thibodaux.

We are pleased to note that Mrs. Ozémé Naquin, who was confined to her home for several days by sickness, is now much better.

The holiday goods that have just been received at the Thibodeaux Drug Store are charming. You should see them before you make your Christmas purchases.

Mrs. Chas. Espenan, after spending several months here with her daughter, Mrs. L. Philip Gaudé, returned to New Orleans last Saturday.

The advance agent of "A Run on the Bank" having fallen sick here, he engaged Mr. C. P. Auslet to fill in this week as advance agent. "Chuck" left last Tuesday to visit the different points along the agent's route.

We had a pleasant call yesterday from Mr. R. Elfert, of the firm of Delamotte & Elfert, owners of the Gold Mine plantation and also part owners of the Magnolia plantation in Assumption.

Dr. H. Chauvin, who resides near Raceland, was quite sick for a couple of days last week, but his friends now have the pleasure of seeing that he is again in possession of his usual good health and charming complexion.

An attractive woman thrives on good food and sunshine, with plenty of exercise in the open air. Her form glows with health and her face blooms with its beauty. When troubled with a costive habit, she takes a few doses of HERBINE to cleanse her system of all impurities. Price, 50 cents. At Thibodeaux Drug Store.

A child was born unto Mr. and Mrs. Clovis Lusignan last Saturday but the little one died Sunday morning. The remains were interred Sunday evening in St. Joseph's Catholic cemetery. We sympathize with the bereaved parents.

The Thibodeaux Drug Store has just received some pretty manicure sets. Christmas is coming and these sets will not hatch by delay. Lay one in the nest for your sweetheart.

Mr. Ozémé Toups is again located at his old home at Lafourche Crossing. He had been away from Lafourche for two years and a half, having been serving as a convict guard. He was stationed latterly at Melville, La., under Capt. V. B. Row, but Capt. Row having been replaced by another gentleman Mr. Toups decided to resign and return to his home in Lafourche.

The friends of Mr. P. P. Delaune are pleased to see that he is again able to attend to his duties as bookkeeper in Mr. E. J. Braud's Shoe and Hat Store. Mr. Delaune was laid up by injuries sustained recently while trying to entrap a pig (probably the one intended for the Thanksgiving feast). It is gratifying to see that Mr. Delaune got well so soon, for it would be regrettable indeed to see so worthy a young man "on the Hogg".

The 10th birthday anniversary of Miss Elise Riviere, daughter of Mrs. Numa Riviere, was celebrated last Monday evening at her home on Jackson street. She received a variety of presents and had a very enjoyable time with the following friends: Misses Alice Ramagosa, Pauline Naquin, Myrthe Ramagosa, Ione Riviere, Clara Molaison, Clara Howell, Mabel Taylor, Hilda Riviere, Lucille Naquin, Angel Naquin, Nannie Rousseau, May Riviere, Viva Coulon, Melo Barker, Nettie Guillot, May Sureau, Edith Lagarde, Belle Lobdell, Celina Pitre, Cora Riviere, Laure Riviere, Beatrice Clement and Master Leonce Riviere.

Protection.

Do you ever stop to think how safe your money is in the bank. It has every possible protection against fire and theft.

The money that you carry about with you, or that you leave in the bureau drawer at home or in your little old fashioned safe, is not safe.

It cost you nothing to put it in a bank.

You cannot lose it or have it stolen. If you do the bank makes it good. A forged check cannot get it. If it does, the bank pays the loss. You're safe in every case.

The editor of the Zachary Excuse offers to his readers the following:

AN APOLOGY.

We owe our readers an abject apology for the wretched appearance of the Excuse for the last week or so, but it could not be helped. Winter caught us without any sash in our windows or place to put our stove, and every printer will appreciate the difficulties under which we have labored in trying to set type and issue the paper in a cold room. On top of all this put a ten days' spell of rheumatism, and you will understand why the Excuse is a week behind time.

Any body who does not sympathize with a newspaper man who has no sash in his windows or stove in his office is certainly hard-hearted. We hope that nothing worse than the above will befall our confrere. As long as the west side of his pants do not require riveting he can consider himself fortunate.

Bowie, La., October 25th, 1901.
Captain James Beary, Thibodaux, La.

Dear Sir:—We wish, in some way, to show our appreciation of the quick response, made by the Thibodaux Fire Department, to our appeal for aid during the recent fire at our Plant, and know of no better means than one by which we may be able to, in some slight way, assist in the maintenance of this very useful Department, therefore, we enclose herewith, our check on Hibernia National Bank, for $100.00 which amount we will thank you to hand over to the proper authorities of the town of Thibodaux, with the expression, from us, of our high appreciation of the cheerful response of your citizens, to our appeal.

Yours respectfully,
Bowie Lumber Co., Ltd.
Per J. F. Wigginton.
